

29. Policies for climate change and energy security, climate changes policies

Aim of UNFCCC is to stabilize green house gas concentration at a level that presents dangerous human interface with climate system.

Policies for energy security,

New infrastructure investment may be necessary ~~investment~~ to meet increases energy demand especially peak demand during heat waves.

S. Dhali